About Jessica

Jessica is a law student who will graduate in December of 2019. As a law clerk, her practice areas have included estate planning, probate, guardianships, and business formations.

Jessica assists clients in the designing and drafting of their individual estate plans. Jessica is experienced with the probate process and has worked on independent administrations, dependent administrations, and heirship determinations in estates without wills. Jessica has also assisted in creating guardianships of the person and preparing accountings associated with guardianships. Jessica also assists clients who are forming businesses, and who have questions involving tax-exempt organizations.

Jessica received her B.S. in Political Communication with a minor in History from The University of Texas at Austin and expects to receive her Doctorate of Jurisprudence from South Texas College of Law Houston in December, 2019.
