About Joseph

Joseph graduated with his law degree in May of 2020 and passed the September 2020 bar exam. As an associate attorney, his practice areas include estate planning, wills and trusts, probate/disputes, guardianships, business formations and transactions, real estate, and employment law.

Joseph works with clients to tailor estate plans to their particular needs and circumstances. His prior experience in working in education and IT gives him the ability to break down complex legal language into terms that clients understand. Joseph also has experience assisting clients in a wide variety of probate matters, including guardianships of the person and estate, and independent and dependent administration of estates both with and without wills.

Originally from Chicago, Joseph moved to Texas to pursue a career in law. He earned his J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center and his Bachelor of Professional Studies degree in Music Business from Berklee College of Music.
